CONTRACT IS LET FOR NEW BUILDING TO COST $30,000

R. L. Jones Is To Be General Contractor on Dixon Store and Office Structure in Deal Closed Saturday—Work To Be Rushed

Contracts were awarded Saturday for the erection of a store and office building for J. A. Dixon on the site, occupied by the store of the Dixon Dry Goods Company destroyed by fire last February.

The new building is to be two stories and basement, thirty by 112 feet, with an eight-foot basement in the rear to provide light and ventilation. The structure will cost in excess of $30,000 complete. The building contract was awarded to R. L. Jones of Vernon and the heating and plumbing were let to the Brewer Heating and Plumbing Company of this city.

Guy A. Carlander of Amarillo, is architect on the building and was here Saturday when the bids were opened. Several out-of-town contractors submitted bids on the job, in addition to the local contractors. Work on the foundations and walls will start as soon as materials can be assembled and the building will be rushed to completion with all possible haste. Every effort will be made to have the building ready for occupancy this fall.

The ground floor will be used as a store room for the Dixon Dry Goods Company. The store front will be along the latest and most approved plans, including recess entrances, spacious lobby and one "island" show window. There will be two entrances to the store room. The stairway to the second floor will start in the main from lobby of the building along the south wall. The ceiling of the first story will be seventeen feet above the floor. A balcony will be built in the rear of the first story. Light and ventilation will be furnished by windows in the rear wall and three large skylights.

The second story will be divided into ten modern office rooms, which may be used separately or en suite.

The basement will be used for a stock room and to house the coal supply and heating plant for the building. The basement will have two entrances, one from the rear on the outside of the building and the other running from the first floor. This latter arrangement will make it possible for the first floor and basement to be thrown into one department store, if desired.

The building will conform in architecture with the Smith building being erected on the corner of Main and Texas Streets on the lot adjoining the new Dixon building.

The letting of the contract on the Dixon building leaves only one lot made vacant by the disastrous fire which occurred early in February. The lot yet to be improved lies between the Dixon building and the Waggoner National Bank building. It was recently purchased by A. H. Murchison, who has not yet announced his detailed plans for improving it. It is known, however, that he will erect a building on it during the present year.

Davis No. 1 Spudded In Sunday Night At Eight O'clock

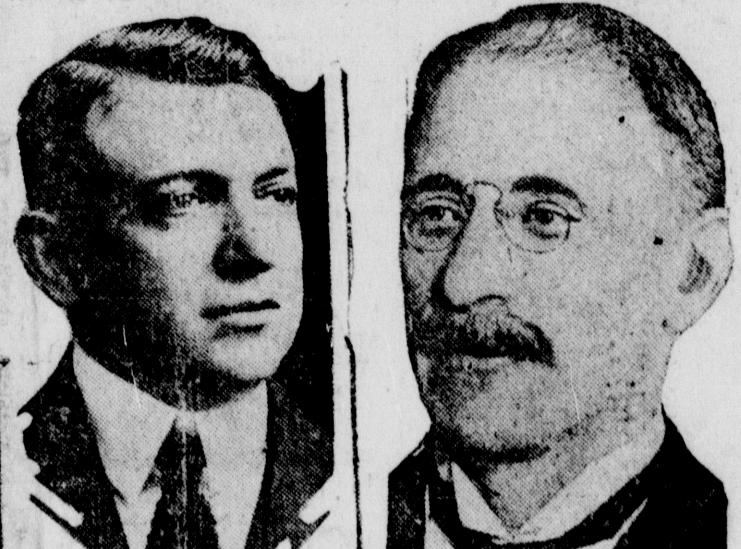

The Daniels, Murchison and Pigg, No. 1, on the Davis farm one mile south of Vernon, was spudded in Sunday night at 8 o'clock with a twenty inch bit. The well will be drilled to a depth of 40 feet with the large bit when the surface water will be cut off with a fifteen inch casing. The company drilling the well plans to drill to a depth of 3500 feet if no pay sand is found before that depth is reached.

This is the first well to be drilled this close to the city and the test will be watched with much interest.

SATURDAY NIGHT BUSY TIME FOR SHERIFF'S FORCE

Saturday night was a busy time for the sheriff's department when five negroes were arrested in Vernon for selling beer and eight more were arrested in the east part of the county for disturbing the peace. One of the negroes caught here was arrested for being intoxicated on the carnival grounds. The men arrested here were taken at different places over the town during a series of raids on houses supposed to be headquarters for the beer salesmen. Children also survive her.

VETERAN OF TWO TOTAL ATTENDANCE WARS IS BURIED DURING MAY IS 4815

GEORGE MCTAYLOR, PIONEER OF VERNON LAID TO REST IN HENRIETTA

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT SUNDAY IS LITTLE LESS THAN AVERAGE OF MONTH

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Henrietta for George McTaylor, 81, who died at his home there Saturday, May 31, following an illness of two years. The services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Hunt of the Baptist church and Rev. W. C. Howell, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment took place in Henrietta cemetery under the auspices of the Masons.

Mr. McTaylor was born in Orlinton, Ohio, July 1843. He was a soldier in the Civil War and belonged to the 79th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. After the war he enlisted in the regular army and was a first Lieutenant under General Crook, noted Indian fighter. For fourteen years he served in the army, taking part in many engagements. He was in the memorable campaign when the Custer massacre occurred on the Little Big Horn, June 1876. William F. Cody, Buffalo Bill, was a scout with McTaylor's company.

The report from the various Sunday schools Sunday is as follows: First Methodist Church, 315 present with $14.50 collection; First Baptist Church, 349 present with $16.35 collection; Presbyterians Church, 165 present with $8.54 collection; Central Christian Church, 137 present with $1.60 collection; Church of Christ, 187 present with $6.50 collection; Lutheran church 32 present with $2 collection. Total present at all Sunday schools was $61.30 while the average collection of the past two months is $61.31 each Sunday.

The attendance at the Sunday schools took a sudden jump during the month of April and it seemed for a while that all attendance records would be broken but in the month of May the attendance fell off until the largest attendance reported during that month was 1925 as compared to 1408 the previous Sunday in April.

After his retirement from the regular army, he was married to Mrs. Hester Bush Crook of Baltimore, Maryland. The couple were married in Fort Worth by Rev. J. C. Howell, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment took place in Henrietta cemetery under the auspices of the Masons.

Mr. and Mrs. McTaylor went to Seymour soon after their marriage where they were in the hotel business. A few years later they moved to Vernon where they made their home for several years, engaging in the hotel and cafe business. Prior to that he had been in the restaurant business, both here and in Vernon, and he is remembered by many old timers who ate at his famous restaurants in years gone by. For over thirty years he and his wife have lived in Vernon about 16 years ago. He is survived by his devoted wife and several nephews and nieces. His funeral was attended by many old time friends and acquaintances. C. E. Dunn, Mrs. Bertha Ross of Vernon and Mrs. Maeve Izon of Elmer, relatives of Mr. McTaylor attended the funeral.

COUNTY WINS IN ROAD BOND CASE ON FIRST TRIAL

Judge P. A. Martin of Wichita Falls sustains plea of Abatement, Dismissing Suit and Dissolving Injunction—Appeal is Taken

The suit attacking the validity of the road bond issue voted March 22, in road district No. 4, known as the East Vernon-Oklahoma district, was dismissed Monday morning by Judge P. A. Martin of Wichita Falls, sitting as a special judge and the injunction granted by Judge James V. Leak was dissolved.

The action was taken on a plea of abatement, filed by attorneys for the county, Berry, Stokes and Killough, of Vernon, and W. P. Dunham of Dallas, alleging that the suit was not brought by the proper parties. Judge Martin sustained the plea of the county, dismissing the suit, dissolving the injunction and ordering the costs assessed against the plaintiffs, C. C. Hawley, et al.

Attorneys for the plaintiffs, Taylor & Taylor and J. L. Luckey of Wichita Falls, formally excepted from the court's ruling and gave notice of appeal. Twenty days is the time allowed to perfect the appeal to the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo.

The petition of the plaintiffs declared that the road district was laid out in a manner unfair and unjust to certain taxpayers, alleging that the district should properly be added to the territory of road district No. 3, known as the Harrold precinct. It further alleged certain irregularities in holding the election at Oklahoma and that many persons were allowed to vote who were not under the law qualified to vote in a road bond election.

An amended petition was filed May 2 by A. M. Blatt, R. L. Castlebury, Lon Byars, F. H. Wright, Ottmar Thiele, W. E. Gandy, A. C. Boger and H. L. Harrill as interpleading plaintiffs, asking that they be made co-plaintiffs with C. C. Hawley, in whose name the original petition was filed, adopting the pleadings of the original petition as their own and further alleging that the election was carried in favor of said bonds by the use of money which was expended in larger sums by paid agents, who went among the voters in said district and electioneered in favor of the bonds, and that said acts upon the part of said paid agents unduly influenced the voters in said district and misrepresented the purposes to the said voters to such an extent as to cause the said election to become corrupt and to not speak the true, sober, sound judgment of the qualified voters in said district.

In arguments before the court at the hearing yesterday J. L. Luckey, one of the attorneys for the plaintiffs, stated that their contentions was not that the law permitting the establishment of special road districts was unconstitutional, nor that any fraud had been committed by the Commissioners Court, but that the Commissioners had drawn the boundaries of the district in such a way as to be unfair and unjust to the plaintiffs. He also stated that while evidence of irregularities in holding the election had been found, he was of the opinion that they could not prove that there was sufficient number of illegal votes cast to change the result of the election, if thrown out. The case of the plaintiffs, he said, was based on the alleged injustice and unfairness in laying out the district as had been done in the case of road district No. 4.

In rendering his decision Judge Martin said that the contention that the tax is unjust because a certain taxpayer does not benefit directly from the expenditure of the road district is sustained in law. He suggested that many people pay taxes to build court houses, bridges, roads and school houses who never make use of them, and that if the contention of the plaintiffs on this point was sound the court docket would be filled with injunction suits asking that tax levies for all kinds of public purposes be set aside. It is impossible to make public improvements that will benefit alike all who must pay taxes to support them, he added.

Contestants from between 20 and 25 counties will take part at the meet and some of the best boy stock judges in this part of the state are expected to take part.

The Wilbarger county team will leave here Friday, June 13, and will return Sunday, June 15. P. D. Chayne, county agent and M. V. Glazener of Oklahoma are in charge of the instruction of the boys and will accompany them on their trip.

CONFERENCE HELD ON FRANCHISE TO GET GAS SUPPLY

D. M. Church, Owner of the Church Well, and City Commissioners in Session Today Practically Agree on Terms of Grant—Meet Thursday

Conferences were held today by members of the City Commission and D. M. Church, owner of the Church well, south of town, relative to granting a franchise for piping gas into Vernon for use as fuel, while no definite agreement was reached, it is considered very probable that the parties will agree on the terms of the franchise.

Mr. Church is asking for substantially the same franchise as is in effect in Electra. Several minor changes were suggested by Mayor Harry Mason and other members of the Commission. Most of these were agreed to, pending formal drafting of the franchise and approval of attorneys. Mr. Church stated that he would have to consult his attorneys in Wichita Falls on certain aspects of the franchise before saying definitely whether he would accept, and members of the City Commission also want to obtain the opinion of the City Attorney on certain provisions before passing a franchise. J. S. Cook, City Attorney, was out of town to day.

The petition of the plaintiffs declared that the road district was laid out in a manner unfair and unjust to certain taxpayers, alleging that the district should properly be added to the territory of road district No. 3, known as the Harrold precinct. It further alleged certain irregularities in holding the election at Oklahoma and that many persons were allowed to vote who were not under the law qualified to vote in a road bond election.

40 HORSES ENTER TWO-DAY HARNESS RACE MEET HERE

Trainers and Entries Expected To Arrive Tomorrow and Thursday—Work on Stables Already Started—Races June 13 and 14

In addition to the 10 horses already entered in the harness race meet to be held here June 13 and 14, 30 more horses were entered before the closing day for entering.

The horses are expected to arrive here this week and work has already been started on the new stalls. A sum sufficient to build the stalls was realized from the J. Geo. Losos shows last week and with the horses arriving here this week, work is being pushed forward with all possible speed. The horses that are scheduled to train here are expected to arrive Wednesday or Thursday. Work on the track is being held up on account of the rain but as soon as the weather permits it will be pushed to completion in order to give the horsemen more time to train their entries for the meet. A. Allison superintendent of speed for the meet states that the track will be very fast this year due to the fact that it will be soft after the rains and when it is worked down will be in perfect condition.

Work on the new grandstand is expected to start in a few days. The funds for this purpose are being raised by the re-sale of the association stock. The new grandstand will have a seating capacity of approximately three times that of the grandstand now standing and will be modern in every respect. It will also be of more substantial material thus removing the danger of the structure falling when it is filled to capacity.

The American Legion plans to have an up-to-date amusement company on the grounds during the meet to furnish entertainment for the visitors after the races. This arrangement of the two events promises to be one of the most entertaining programs of the year and will be second to none in size except the County Fair which will be held the first week in September. The local post of American Legion plans to erect a home in Vernon with the funds raised at the race meet.

"Strangers of the Night" Is Coming Here to Pictorium

Coming to the Pictorium Thursday and Friday, a great play, a greater picture, "Strangers of the Night," (Captain Applejack.) The producer of "The Three Musketeers," surpasses all his previous efforts in this brilliantly spectacular picture of thrilling romance and baffling mystery. The superb cast is headed by Matt Moore, as the Hon. Ambrose Applejohn who steps from his patient leather pumps into the swashbuckling boots of his pirate ancestor, Captain Applejack—as mild mannered man as ever scuttled a ship or cut a throat." Enid Bennett, the Maid Marion of "Robin Hood," as the demure little aristocrat who finds herself transformed into the buccaneer's cabin boy Barbara La Marr, the adventures of "Trifling Women," and "The Prisoner of Zenda," as the seductive Russian spy; Robert McKim, the handsomest villain of the screen, as the leader of the pirate mutiny, adulated by Bess Meredyth from the Sam H. Harris stage success, "Captain Applejack," by Walter Hackett. Photography by Alvin Wyckoff. Magnificent settings by Robert Ellis. A romance of thrilling mystery.

Wednesday only, "Jack O' Clubs," Herbert Rawlinson's newest, stirring vehicle. You'll enjoy Herbert Rawlinson's wonderful characterization of likable Jack Foley, the fighting Irish con who brought the law into disorderly Gang Row and happiness into the life of pretty Tilly Miller!

Also comedy, "Fighting Blood," now showing at Pictorium for last day, "The Eternal Three," is the Love-Thief society's most dangerous criminal? He steals into the lives of daughters, sisters and wives—breaking hearts, raining retributions. He daunts at the tears of womanhood and plucks his stolen kisses from lips that no longer have the power to deny him. The story of the Man, the Woman and the Lover is life's drama with Hobart Bosworth, Lorraine Windsor, Raymond Griffith and Bessie Love.

MISS LLOYD WINS MUCH PRAISE IN RECITAL

Miss Maitiene Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lloyd, of 1201 East Pease street, Vernon, Texas, made the program presented by Leo Pauliz, teacher of piano at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, a memorable event when she played Bach's Prelude and Fugue, B. Flat Major.

Splendid technique and a very thorough knowledge of music as well as of the instrument on which she is specializing was in evidence. Seldom did an audience

Lady Astor, only American woman ever to sit in the British Parliament, had lively experiences while campaigning in Glasgow, Scotland, for the Unionist candidate, Captain Elliot. Communists tried to break up the meeting, but she stopped the uproar by singing "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Harry K. Thaw, free at last for killing Stanford White, has announced that he will settle $10 a day upon Evelyn Nesbit, his divorced wife, who is said to be earning $500 weekly in an Atlantic City, N. Stokes, New York millionaire sportsman, charged in Chicago with attempting to induce witnesses to swear falsely in his unsuccessful divorce suit against his wife, has been postponed because of his illness. The charming Viola Kraus, of New York City, friend of the international chess wizard, Joseph B. Alweil, will return to America from Europe in the Fall, when efforts will be renewed to find the man who mysteriously murdered Edwell four years ago in his New York City home. Miss Kraus' sister, Mrs. Walter Leisohn, is said to have valuable information for the District Attorney.

Miss Lloyd has been studying in the piano department of the Cincinnati Conservatory this year.

An Appreciation.

On behalf of the American Legion we want to thank all patriotic citizens who so generously responded to our request for flowers with which to decorate the graves of the soldier dead of all wars on Memorial Day. Flowers to meet all needs were gladly brought, ranging in design from wreath, cross, and pillow to sprays and other beautiful designs. The graves of nearly forty former veterans of the Civil, Spanish and World Wars were decorated with these offerings, while former comrades stood at attention and the firing squad presented arms.

We also want to thank the ladies and all those who in any way aided us in the ceremonies of the day.

We hope the exercises next year will bring the participation of the entire community in honoring the memory of those who gave their lives that we might continue to enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

TERVANS OF ALL WARS HONORED BY NATIONAL GUARD

at the Glory of America's Dead Might Live Through Eternity Is Spirit of Public Meeting Friday Night in Vernon

That the glory of America's dead might loom as a shining light on the horizon of eternity, was the spirit of the Memorial Day services held in the National Guard cemetery on North Main Street Friday night. The largest crowd ever gathered in the House of Everyman gathered to pay tribute to America's heroes of all wars. Captain Clyde D. Watts welcomed the visitors in a short address which was followed by a prayer by Rev. L. Moore. Leon H. Brown, former state adjutant of the Oklahoma American Legion gave the memorial address and Mrs. C. J. Farley, in a very effective manner, said "In Flanders Fields," and America's Answer. Rev. Moore made an address on "Peace," and Marvin C. Culbertson, Commander The Albert E. Robertson Post, American Legion, talked on "Training and The Man." Lieutenant Albert T. Lutz spoke on the purpose of the National Guard. After service the armory was thrown open to the inspection of the visitors.

Captain Watts, in his address, spoke paid tribute to America's dead and expressed his appreciation of the public's joining the National Guard in honoring the men who have joined the ranks of the immortals.

Mr. Brown, who has been a member of the American Legion since it was organized and who has not missed a meeting of the organization since 1919, spoke of the honor and glory of the heroes, who paid the supreme sacrifice, as only a son can. He not only praised the heroes of the World war, but those of all wars in which America has participated. He compared the glory and honor of the immortal ones with the sunset which glows long after the sun has gone beyond the horizon; stating that the glory of those who had gone before would be bright on the horizon of history long after the stars had worn away the bitter feeling of the conflict. "The American Legion has established a fund, the profits of which will be used to decorate the graves of the soldiers who fell in the war and the buddies who will go into the earth beyond in later years," declared Mr. Brown, and we, while we should do our part to show the fallen brothers that we remember them.

Rev. Moore honored the work done by the fallen heroes and declared the time would be long before peace would reign in the world. "I am in favor of peace but since there are to be wars, I believe in preparedness," declared Rev. Moore, and I feel that we should extend our gratitude to the men at the head of the National Guard for teaching our youth to be ready to take up the march that was handed to us from Flanders Fields.

Mr. Culbertson in speaking of training and the man, paid homage to his fallen buddies and to their memory. He spoke of the days spent in the training camps and the wonderful results of the men in charge of the work. He showed how the men came from every district, when the nation called and fitted themselves for the work that was laid down for them. He spoke of training the youth of America in order that they might carry on the work of Uncle Sam in the world war. He raised the National Guard for the work they are doing along this line.

Lieut. Lutz explained the purpose of the National Guard as being to train the youth of the country in patriotism and not in the work of wars. "It is the one means of training young men to know what war is, in order that they will not be ready to jump into conflict but when the time comes to be ready and trained, in order that they might offer the services of a trained soldier," he explained. He stated that the National Guard was an organization that was owned by every man and every man should feel it his duty to see that the company or unit in his town should receive the support that it needs to give with the necessary training.

After the ceremonies the visitors inspected the armory and a general get together meeting was held.

Swat the Rooster.

I walked into the store of a local produce buyer one day and found him candling eggs.

"Do you make a separate grade for each of those four cases?" I inquired.

"Five," he corrected; "don't forget the discard. That grade will not go to market, of course, but it costs the farmers of the United States a grand total of $50,000,000 a year in round numbers to produce it."

"That's a lot of money," I finally contrived to remark. "Isn't there something farmers can do to relieve themselves of the burden?"

"Sure there is," he snapped. "It is merely a matter of general agreement to 'swat the rooster.' And if every farmer in this community would put that advice into execution I could throw away that candling device and buy eggs blindfolded."

"Why do you know?" he continued, warning up. "That the average temperature of this section of the country from June until September is sufficiently high to start the process of incubation in a fertile egg?"

"I would not say that a fertile egg will hatch at a temperature much less than 100 degrees, but I do know, from my own experience, that incubation often begins at 70 degrees. The strength of the embryo, of course, determines just how long it will develop before it dies from lack of heat but it does not require many hours for it to reach the point where it will be candled out of a shipment or at least take a low grade. And a weak embryo will live long enough to form a blood ring."

"With 70 degrees as a starting point you can imagine what the days of June, July and August would do to eggs, with the thermometer seldom registering below 80 degrees. I can assure you that cold-storage operators have very good reasons for preferring the spring-laid eggs even though they have to hold them much longer before placing them on the market."

"Assuming that the weak embryo of an egg becomes chilled and dies within an hour or so after it is laid," I inquired, "does that make the eggs more valuable?"

"Not much," he exclaimed. "It requires considerable of a chill to kill the embryo of an egg in the early stages of its development."

"On the other hand, assuming as you said, that the embryo of the egg died within an hour after it was exposed to a temperature of less than 70 degrees, you still have to contend with the possibility of the dead embryo setting up a process of decay. And that is what really happens in the production of a rotten egg. An infertile egg will deteriorate, of course, but its contents do not often decay, they merely dry up."

THE ALPS OF TEXAS.

(By Phoebe K. Warner)

One of the weakest points in the education of all the people of Texas is our utter lack of knowledge about our own State. Since her earliest history, Texas has been looked upon by both her own citizens and the people of other States as one great big wild cowboy land. There is an individuality in the general make-up of our State that never will be obliterated. And every one of us should be proud of it.

But how many of us ever think first of Texas as a scenic State? How many of us think of Texas as a really and truly cultured and classic State? Most of us have told ourselves often that we are 34th or 35th or 36th in education that a lot of us have the idea there is no use trying to make anything of Texas but a great big cotton patch and cattle pasture.

It is very true that cotton and cattle have done more to develop Texas than any other products. But that is no proof that we can't make Texas one of the most attractive States in all this Union! If the Texas people will only unite in their efforts to build into the life of the Texas people the things the Creator of all the world made for the purpose.

There is an idea afloat in the land that all the beauty in our nation is somewhere outside of Texas. And there is no one so much to blame for this idea as the people of Texas themselves. Even since the State was created it has been the habit of our people to go elsewhere to find their recreation and pleasure and classic entertainment. When we want to see the mountains we like to California or Colorado and come back when our money is all spent to sing the praises and advertise the beauty of some other State to our children and neighbors. When we want to go to the seashore we strike out for the Atlantic or the Pacific Oceans, neither of which happen to touch Texas. When we want to spend the winter in some semi-tropical land where the birds sing and the flowers bloom and the oranges ripen and blossom through the winter days, we buy a ticket to Southern Florida or California.

And all the time the same kind of places we are seeking are going to waste within our big Texas. But how many of us know where they are? The mission of the State Parks Board is to plan a way for all the people of Texas to "See Texas First" then they will have something to tell about home when they go away from home. There is not a State in all of Uncle Sam's big family that has a greater variety of real scenic beauty than

Oliver No. 1 Southern Cultivator

The Oliver No. 1 Southern Cultivator has been developed to perform the best possible job of cultivating all Southern crops.

Imbodies the Oliver improved seat guide, parallel gangs and other features that guarantee satisfaction. The beams are either foot or lever lift. The frame permits the use of either four-shovel pipe beam, four-or six-shovel flat beam or disc gangs and either a hammock or saddle seat.

OLIVER SEAT GUIDE

Extreme ease of operation and a wide range of adjustment in the gangs is provided by the use of the Oliver seat guide. Instead of the tiring work of continually shifting the gangs with his feet, the operator swings his seat sideways to shift the gangs. As the seat is swayed to one side the gangs are shifted and the wheels are turned in the opposite direction. The gangs are in parallel position at all times. This makes the work of cultivating crooked rows or hillsides easy.

The seat bars pivot over the axle on ball bearings and under the cross bar on a roller while the tongue pivots at the front end of the frame and to the front end of the seat bars on a roller. This reduces friction to a minimum and makes operation easy.

See the Oliver before you buy. We are glad to show you and can save you money.

the haven of rest and recreation for all Chicago." But the Davis Mountains are not in Illinois. "THEY ARE IN TEXAS." They belong to Texas. No one but Texas will ever own them. Thank the Lord, beauty such as that can not be bought and sold or plowed up or seeded down. If the Davis Mountains could have been moved some other State would have come to Texas and bought them and transplanted them elsewhere. But that was not God's plan. He made the Davis Mountains and gave them to Texas NOW and FOREVER. And it is up to the people of Texas to wake up, and lift up their heads to the hills and the possibilities of the Davis Mountains as the most ideal place in this nation for a great educational center. Half-way from coast to coast already on one transcontinental railway and when the Orient becomes a part of the great Rock Island system the Davis Mountains will become one of the greatest attractions between the Great Lakes and the Pacific Ocean.

Why is Texas 34th in education?

It is not all because she is the greatest cotton State in the world. It is not alone because of her short terms of school and her over-worked children. One of the chief reasons Texas is 34th in education is because she has failed to recognize and utilize her greatest educational assets that Nature gave to her and her alone. Texas has failed to use her own educational talent. Because she had only one great range of mountains, Colorado had. Wonder what Illinois would do with the Davis Mountains if they were stretched across her prairies? Wonder what California would have done if she had owned the Davis Mountains instead of her own? Do you suppose these States would have allowed their own wonderland of beauty to stand silent and idle except for the cows and coyotes and prairie dogs and spend all their time and money for pleasure and rest and sight-seeing in some other State? Do you think they would? Not on your "radiograph!" California and Colorado have grown rich through the medium of their scenery. They have used their mountains to entice folks to their country and after they got there they have stood over in Jeff Davis, Brewster, Pecos and Presidio Counties ever since the world was created waiting for somebody to use them and enjoy them and make of them one of the greatest educational and recreational assets in the whole State.

Wonder what Colorado would have done with the Davis Mountains if they had been up there and were used for a great Chautauqua used for a great Chautauqua grounds. It would have been a great musical center. It would have been there they had other things to show them. As for Illinois, she has no such scenery as the Davis Mountains within a thousand miles of her borders. But if Illinois had had such a wealth of beauty it would have been known around the world today. Yes, and it would have been used for a great Chautauqua.

Wonder what Colorado would have done with the Davis Mountains if they had been up there and were

SMITH-MACADOO DEADLOCK PREDICTED.

Mark Sullivan, noted political writer, predicts a deadlock in the national Democratic convention between the McAdoo forces and the supporters of Governor Al Smith of New York. These men, he declares, will go into the convention with a sufficient number of votes to prevent the nomination of either and a prolonged tug-of-war will be the most likely result, with the possibility of one side out-maneuvering the other and winning the nomination.

Mr. Sullivan seems to believe, however, that a compromise on some man acceptable to a large number of both McAdoo and Smith supporters will be the probable outcome, and he says that Senator Ralston of Indiana is the man who is most likely to fit in as the compromise nominee.

Whether Mr. Sullivan has correctly assayed the various factors that will enter into the proceedings of the national convention, time alone will tell. One thing is certain, however, and that is that neither McAdoo nor Smith will be able to control a sufficient number of delegates to be able to run the convention. Under such circumstances the nomination of a dark horse is about the only possible answer to the question.

It is a foregone conclusion that delegates pledged to uphold the dry laws of the country will never consent to the nomination of the New York Governor. His views on the liquor question are too well known and too little appreciated in the South and West to permit the delegates from these two sections to agree to his nomination. If Smith wins he must do so without the support of the South or West.

It is likewise true that the opposition to McAdoo's nomination will be just as determined as is the Smith opposition, though for different reasons. While McAdoo is classed as a "dry" his views on the liquor question takes secondary place with many. His known leanings toward Government ownership of railways and other semi-socialistic measures is the basis for much of the opposition to his candidacy. Then, in the minds of many people his connection with big business and particularly his connection with Doheny, of naval oil reserve fame, renders him unavailable as a candidate.

If Mr. Sullivan is right in his prediction that McAdoo and Smith will be the chief candidates for the nomination, it is to be devoutly hoped that neither will be able to win the nomination. Just which of the two would run the better race is a matter of conjecture, but The Record believes that the nomination of either Smith or McAdoo would insure the party its worst defeat in history. The nomination of either would remove whatever doubt there might otherwise be of President Coolidge's election.

NATURAL GAS PROSPECTS.

One of the finest things that could be done to advance the interests of the city of Vernon and to add to its attractiveness as a place for investments would be to bring natural gas in for fuel. And just at this time, the prospects are bright for the consummation of such a project. The Church well, recently drilled in, is capable of producing a supply more than adequate to furnish the fuel needs of a city several times the size of Vernon at the present time, and every indication points to the existence of a large gas-producing area.

In all probability the term of a franchise to the Church interests will be agreed on at a meeting of the City Commission scheduled to be held this afternoon. It is known that the Church interests have ample capital to carry out the project of piping gas into the city and of laying the necessary supply lines inside the city limits.

Assuming that provisions of a franchise will be agreed upon, the only thing necessary to do is to drill a few additional wells to determine whether the Church No. 1 is in a gas pocket and in order to be assured of a supply should anything occur to the present well to shut off the gas supply. The additional wells can be drilled during this summer and if everything works out favorably it is entirely possible to be supplying gas to the people of Vernon within twelve months.

The Chamber of Commerce, city officials and business men generally interested in the progress of the city are anxious to push this enterprise through to an early consummation. It would certainly prove one of the greatest steps ever taken in building up Vernon.

Progress of Nation Measured By Improvement in Its Homes Says U. S. Specialist in Housing

DR. JOHN M. GRIES AND MRS. CHARLES SCHUTTLER

Wholesome homes are a primary source of strong individual character and of national progress. Because of this, the Better Homes in America movement is trying to reach every American family, paying particular attention this year to families of moderate means, and extending the educational benefits of the campaign to the rural sections of the country. Dr. John M. Gries, chief of the Division of Building and Housing of the U. S. Department of Commerce, and a director of the Better Homes organization, says on this subject:

"A nation's progress can be measured by the improvement it makes in its homes, for the homes are the visible and enduring product of the efforts of its people, and from them come the men and women who make the nation. Hence the better the home the better should be our future citizens. 'Better Homes' does not mean merely better built houses, but it means better design, better equipment, better light and air, and more

Forbes, Southwide Elementary Sunday School Secretary, Miss Mary Virginia Lee, Intermediate Specialist of the Baptist Sunday School Board; Mr. Harry L. Strickland, Secretary of the Organized Bible Classes of Southern Baptists, and Miss Emma Noland, a specialist in Sunday School Record Board Systems, all of Nashville, Tennessee, will be present and deliver addresses and conduct conferences.

Every phase of the administrative side of the modern Sunday School will be exhaustively dealt with. The music of this convention is to be directed by Robert H. Coleman, Superintendent of the First Baptist Sunday School of Dallas. Superintendents of Sunday Schools from every section of Texas will take part on the program. Entertainment of all visiting superintendents and other workers attending this convention has been arranged for in Brooks Hall at Baylor University, Mr. Strickland, Secretary of the Organized Bible Classes of Southern Baptists, and Miss Emma Noland, a specialist in Sunday School Record Board Systems, all of Nashville, Tennessee, will be present and deliver addresses and conduct conferences.

NATIONAL GUARD SUMMER CAMP TO BE AT GALVESTON

Company "L" Now Preparing for Encampment To Be Held in July—To Have Regular School of Instruction Every Sunday

The third of a series of classes for officers and non-commissioned officers was held under the personal instruction of Captain Clyde D. Watts Sunday afternoon at the National Guard armory on North Main street. Captain Watts has been holding the schools regularly at the armory since his return from the officers' school at Camp Mabry, Austin, the first week in May. The purpose of the schools is to get the officers and non-commissioned officers acquainted with the new changes in the army regulations in order that they will be able to render efficient service at the annual summer camp.

The summer camp will be held at Camp Fort Crockett, Galveston, this year instead of Camp Mabry as heretofore. The change was made Saturday afternoon at Washington by the heads of the Military Bureau. The time has not been set but from all indications the camp is expected to be held the first part of July.

The local unit of Texas National Guard will be in first class condition for the camp this year since the preparations are being started in time to avoid the rush that has heretofore been experienced. The men are receiving the necessary instruction in marksmanship early this year and some good riflemen are expected to be developed at the camp. Work on the rifle range north of Vernon has been held up indefinitely due to some technicalities that were discovered in the lease of the land and it is uncertain as to when the range will be completed and put into operation. This work will in all probability be delayed until after the return of Company "L" from the annual summer encampment. The construction of ranges and other National Guard problems will be taken up at the summer camp and all arrangements made while the entire officers' personnel is present. This is being done in order that the ranges will be uniform in construction and meets between organizations can be arranged during the year.

Col. C. W. Nimon was in Vernon last week and stated that he was interested in getting an armory built for the Vernon unit. This will also be taken up at camp and definite steps taken to get the building no by the first of the year. A local business man has stated that he would build the armory and another states that he will furnish a lot. Captain Watts stated that he would not consider such a move until he had discussed the matter with the officials at camp. He stated further that he would not think of an armory until he had a full strength company and that made up of hand picked men that would be a credit to the service and the town. "We are trying to train the youth of the community in patriotism and to be officers and we can not do this unless we have the right kind of men to work with," he declared.

SAYS KARNAK OFFERS HEALTH TO MILLIONS

Thousands of People
Throughout the State are Now Praising the Sensational New Medicine For Benefits Received From Its Use.

Thousands of prominent people throughout the State are now praising the sensational new medicine Karnak. The demand for the preparation has exceeded all previous records, and as new tests of its powers are made, hundreds more are daily adding their indorsements to the thousands already given it.

In explaining the phenomenal success of the medicine, Mr. H. C. Thorburn, President of Standard Drug Products, Inc., recently said:

"Before we secured the distribution rights for Karnak in this country we knew that it was a wonderful health-builder, and were convinced that it would restore millions of people to the joys of health. Now the public has proved this for itself and people everywhere flock to the drug stores to get it and report benefits from its use that far surpass even their fondest hopes.

"You can tell after the first few doses of Karnak that you are being benefitted in a natural, substantial way. These substantial benefits form the fundamental reason for the medicine's unprecedented success."

Stock Pens at Oklahoma To Be Completed Soon

P. D. Clancy, county agent and R. M. Fielder, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, went to Brown school house Saturday night where a meeting was held with the farmers of that community relative to the grasshopper plague. Some damage has been done by grasshoppers in that vicinity and in other portions of the south part of the county. The hoppers seem to be coming out of the Waggoner pasture, and farmers are afraid that the plague will become serious. In some counties east, the insects have made vast inroads into the crops. At the meeting the farmers agreed to use the bran mush poison put out by the government and recommended by Mr. Bowling against the pests. The following is the formula used:

Wheat Bran Poison Mixture.

25 pounds bran, 1 pound white arsenic or Paris Green; 6 feints, lemons or oranges; 2 quarts low grade molasses; 2 gallons water.

Mix bran and poison together well, mix water and molasses and fruits. After being well mixed together, then add the two mixtures together, stir well.

Place out early each morning or late in afternoon as this is their time to feed.

Above amount will cover about five acres, depending on how thick the grasshoppers are. The mixture can be sown as small grain.

The Studebaker Light-Six!

More are sold than of any other six in the thousand-dollar price class!

More because—it is the sweetest, smoothest-running Six you ever drove. Its specially designed offset valve motor, its machined crankshaft, its four big crankshaft bearings, its perfectly precisioned cylinders, pistons and reciprocating parts are the reason.

More because—no other car in its price class shows such obvious indications of quality—genuine leather upholstery, a hand-tailored top and curtains, carefully selected details of equipment, lustrous baked enamel finish.

More because—its 40-horsepower motor, its correct gear ratio, its beautiful balance and low center of gravity, make it like lightning in the "get-away," never failing on a hill, and effortless under a full load on any reasonable road.

More because—it is backed by a great service organization, immediately and willingly accessible.

More because—its recognized used car value protects you with the lowest possible depreciation when you come to trade it in.

To prove its goodness by performance we will lend you a Light-Six any day this week—come in and ask for it.
